'Porsche around the World' is a new section of the Porsche Road & Race online journal where we will post items of interest that have either just happened, or are about to happen, anywhere on our planet, in the Porsche community. Feel free to get in touch with us to tell us about your event, or give us the results of a national concourse, or similar. This section will grow over time, but we hope to bring you this news on a weekly or fortnightly basis, depending on the level of activity.
